Co-op Connections
"Your Link to University Life"

In The Loop

March 2008

Greetings,

We hope that you are enjoying your Co-op and that the New England weather hasn't taken too much of a toll on you. Here at Co-op Connections, we have been working hard to create exciting programs for our 3rd Annual Co-op Spring Break!! We have designed Co-op Spring Break to reach out to all of you who may not have a chance to get a Spring Break vacation. For a complete list of events and registration please visit our website at: http://www.northeastern.edu/coopconnections/coopspringbreak.html

There's still plenty of time to sign up. We hope to see you there!!

Take care,
Sonya, Julia & Alexa

Husky Happenings

Taken from the Northeastern Voice dated 2/20/08

President Joseph Aoun met face-to-face — or more accurately Eye to Eye — with students at a packed forum last week, and all came away enlightened and impressed.

"Our students are tremendously interested and engaged in the life of the university," Aoun said.

The Council for University Programs (CUP) hosted the Eye to Eye forum on Feb. 5 in the packed ballroom of Curry Student Center.

"We had the event to bridge the gap between President Aoun and members of his administration and students, by encouraging an open conversation among university administrators and student leaders," said Scott Hultman, CUP's president, this week.

"The event was a success, both in terms of attendance and in meeting the goals of the event," he said. "We are looking at the possibility of creating an 'Eye to Eye' series that focuses on different issues on campus."

There are a lot of great ways to stay connected to the University regardless of your location!

OFF CAMPUS STUDENT SERVICES

www.offcampus.neu.edu

Off Campus Student Services seeks to serve as a communication link and resource to Northeastern University students, faculty, staff, and administration.

Our aim is to address the unique needs of this student population; to offer information, resources, and materials regarding off campus student living issues; and to familiarize students, faculty, staff, and administrators with our services in an effort to provide our students with off-campus living education and options.

For more information about upcoming events through Off-Campus Student Services, please visit their website at

Co-op Spotlight

Every month Co-op Connections will feature students who are currently on Co-op.

Peter Martin

Peter Martin is a Journalism Major who currently works for the Eagle-Tribune as a Reporter.

What do you do at this company?
I cover local high school sports including putting together box scores. I also cover individual games and put together stories for the following days' issues. I am also working on a feature piece about the Lowell Devils minor league hockey team.

What do you like about the job so far?
I am getting to do actual work in the real world. I am learning to cover games and interact with people involved in high school and professional sports.

What are you looking forward to at this job?
I am looking forward to working my way up to bigger and bigger stories. The more I write, the more they let me cover, and the bigger the story they let me cover.

St Jude's Letter Writing Campaign

Sponsored by NEU's Up Til Dawn
March 25th 6-11 at the CSC Ballroom

St Jude is a research hospital for pediatric oncology. They are non-sectarian, take all children regardless of insurance, and would never ask a family to pay expenses not covered by insurance. The hospital costs $1.2 million to keep open each day, most which comes from public donations.

On March 25th, come to the Ballroom with the addresses of all your friends and family. There will be music, free t-shirts, food and more. All participants who bring in 50 addresses will be entered in a raffle to win Red Sox tickets, an iPOD, whole foods gift cards and much more.

Please contact stande.e@neu.edu for more information and to receive your official 50 names fast sheet.

Community Service

There are many great ways to give back to the surrounding community of Northeastern. You can join the YMCA of Greater Boston (http://www.ymcaboston.org/) right down the street on Huntington Ave., or dedicate a Sunday Morning at the Greater Boston Food Bank (http://www.gbfb.org/). The Center of Community Service at Northeastern University provides great opportunities like these and many others such as Service Learning, Alternative Spring Break, and Service Days. The Center for Community Service also has special partnerships with Junpstart, the Massachusetts Promise Fellowship, and Student Leaders for Service. For more information and to sign up please visit www.communityservice.neu.edu
