A SENSE OF THE SENATE CALLING FOR SUPPORT OF THE FACULTY SENATE COURSE SEQUECNING PROPOSAL

Whereas "Students must balance the demands of classes, study, part-time work, and social work"*, And

Whereas The business course sequence format, which meets only twice a week, permits students to more easily balance these commitments, And

Whereas This sequencing option also promotes alternative teaching styles that emphasize ACE principles of classroom interaction, And

Whereas The additional activity period that is prescribed by the plan responds to the student need for additional meeting time during the day,

IT IS THE SENSE OF THE SENATE THAT the proposed course sequencing plan giving all colleges the option of offering classes that meet twice a week for one hundred minutes be adopted by the Faculty Senate with the recommendation of the Student Government Association.

Respectfully Submitted with the Approval of the Academic Affairs Committee,

*Report of the Senate Committee on Course Scheduling, May 19, 1998.
