A Senate Resolution Concerning Student Cooperative Education Rights Recommending that the Student Co-op Handbook Be Revised, to Clearly Define Student Rights and Responsibilities and That This Handbook Be Reissued and Be Readily Available To All Students.

Whereas: Cooperative Education is an essential part of Northeastern University, AND

Whereas: Students have a fundamental right to quality Cooperative Education experiences, AND

Whereas: A major reorganization of Cooperative Education has taken place that has altered the relationships among co-op students and academic units, AND

Whereas: Student success is based on readily available information, AND

Whereas: Students have a right to organized information regarding the Cooperative Education experience, THEREFORE BE IT

Resolved: That the Student Cooperative Education Handbook be revised with input from the Student Government Association to address the relationships among the University, the students, employers, and academic units and to clearly define and communicate the roles, rights, and responsibilities of co-op advisors, employers and the students as well as the processes involved to student participation in the Cooperative Education experience. BE IT FURTHER

Resolved: That said Handbook be distributed to all freshman students in their Introduction to College Course and made available both in print form and on the Cooperative Education website, so that every student may be made aware of the benefits and responsibilities of Cooperative Education.

Respectfully Submitted With the Approval of the Executive Board,
