A Student Government Association Sense of the Senate Recommending that the University, BRC and Student Groups Share the Responsibility of Funding a Late Night Entertainment Venue, Where Construction Costs Are Assumed by the University and a Portion of the Funding for Entertainment Should Be Provided by the BRC and Student Groups

WHEREAS: The Student Government Association has already endorsed the possibility of creating an on-campus late night entertainment venue (SS: SP-00-105), AND

WHEREAS: The University Administration has also shown interest in the creation of an on-campus late night entertainment venue, AND

WHEREAS: The success of a late night entertainment venue will require the verbal and monetary support of the student body to provide programming for the venue, AND

WHEREAS: The Late Night Task Force has given its support to the model presented before the Senate, AND

WHEREAS: The University should commit to the construction costs of the late night entertainment venue and the student body should commit to a portion of the programming costs by using student activities fee money, AND THEREFORE IT IS THE SENSE OF THE STUDENT SENATE that a late night entertainment venue be built, consistent with the recommendations of the Late Night Task Force. Construction costs will be assumed by the University. A portion of the funding for entertainment should be provided by student groups and the Budget Review Committee.

Respectfully submitted,
