BE IT RESOLVED That academic initiatives, directly or indirectly involving library resources or library personnel, include consultation with the Dean of Libraries or his/her designee. This representative should be made aware of specific resources the initiative requires in terms of library resources and that the input from the library has been integrated into the final initiative that is moved through the University's policy and governance processes.

2. WHEREAS peer tutoring is an important component within the Northeastern University structure, and that presently at least 11 peer tutoring services exist on the Boston Campus

BE IT RESOLVED That he Faculty Senate endorses the need for additional study and the issuing of recommendations regarding the current state of tutoring at the University. Such additional study shall be undertaken either by establishing an Ad Hoc Committee on Peer Tutoring or by charging a Standing Committee of the Senate.

 Resolution on Open Access in Scholarly Publication (adopted from the University of Iowa Resolution: http://www.uiowa.edu/~facsen/Agenda/Senate05-06/11-29-05/2-LibrariesResolution.htm)

WHEREAS Northeastern University's longstanding commitment to the free and open publication, presentation and discussion of research advances the interests of the scholarly community, the faculty individually, and the public, and

WHEREAS the costs of scholarly journals are continually rising at rates greater than the rate of inflation and higher than the rate of University budget increases, and

WHEREAS the activities of these publishers directly depend upon the continued participation of faculty at Northeastern University and similar institutions acting as editors, reviewers, and authors, and

WHEREAS a lasting solution to this problem requires not only interim measures but also a long range plan, and

WHEREAS publication in open access journals and repositories is an increasingly effective option for scholarly communication,

The Northeastern University Faculty Senate:

a. Encourages faculty to become familiar with the pricing and business practices of journals and journal publishers in their specialty, and to support journals and publishers whose pricing and accessibility policies promote broad and continuing access to scholarship.

- b. Urges faculty, especially tenured faculty, to exert a positive influence on the direction of scholarly publishing through the choices they make in the submission of papers, the commitment of time to refereeing activities, and participation in editorial work.
- c. Encourages faculty and the University to support new models for scholarly publishing, including open access journals and archives, disciplinary and institutional repositories and other approaches that enhance the broad dissemination of knowledge while preserving peer review and excellence in scholarship.
- d. Urges faculty to maintain control of their scholarly work by retaining intellectual property rights, in order to allow them greater freedom to disseminate their work and thereby maximize the impact of their scholarship.
- e. Calls upon the faculty and University administration to support these changes by providing incentives and assistance to for those advancing alternative models.

[Note: Nothing in this resolution is intended to detract from recognition of the link between journal quality and scholarly benefits to individuals, departments and the University, or to undermine the central role of the peer review process in academic publication. Rather, the goal is to encourage publication in open-access sources where these goals will not be compromised, to increase the range and quality of open access journals and archives, and to encourage journal editors and publishers to support open access goals.]

Senate meetings will be held on the following Wednesdays from 11:45 a.m. to 1:25 p.m. except April 25, which will include the organizational meeting of the 2007-08 Senate from 10-11 a.m. and the final meeting of the 2006-07 Senate from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. President Aoun will attend the October 18 meeting.
