WHEREAS, Northeastern University has affirmed a strong commitment to students and their academic endeavors, And

WHEREAS, Academic Groups and Academic Honor Societies provide many services to students such as tutoring, hosting renowned speakers in their field of study, and sponsoring events where students can communicate with the deans of their respective college, And

WHEREAS, the above functions require money to be successful, And

WHEREAS, Many Academic Groups and Academic Honor Societies are not financially supported by their respective departments, And

WHEREAS, Academic Groups and Academic Honor Societies cannot seek money through the Student Activities Fee since they do not meet the criteria established by the Student Government Association's Budget Review Committee, And

WHEREAS, Academic Groups and Academic Honor Societies provide a vital communication link between professors and their students as well as give students a sense of attachment to their department,

Therefore

In order for Academic Groups and Academic Honor Societies to flourish and succeed, they must have access to financial resources. Therefore

IT IS A SENSE OF THE STUDENT SENATE to support the attached grant to be submitted to the Strategic Implantation Grant Committee for its favorable consideration. This grant would affirm the importance of Academic Honor Societies as an integral part of our Northeastern academic community.

Respectfully submitted with the approval of the Executive Board,

Stacey Archfield
Vice-President for Financial Affairs

Marc Duval Vice-President for Administration Laura A Waters President
